

Neighborhood News,

As Told by Our Assistant Editors.

Rhineland.

Miss Ida Kallmeyer, daughter of Dr. F. H. Kallmeyer of New Florence is visiting friends and relatives here.

While in St. Louis last week Mr. John Landolt, merchant at Starkenburg, was brutally assaulted and robbed by two negroes who sprang out of an alley and knocked him down before he had time to make any resistance. He was relieved of a watch and chain and about $5 in change.

Mr. John Gieringer is reported quite sick with his old ailment.

Mr. Hy Schluemer who has been visiting relatives the past week returned to his home in Callaway county Saturday.

Prof. J. E. Meritt is spending a few days at the fair and Exposition in St. Louis.

Among our citizens who took advantage of cheap rates to St. Louis on Katyday Thursday were J. H. Patton, Misses Ida Maul and Ollie Crockett, Adolph Heying and wife and V. H. W. Stock.

Dr. Walz of Big Spring who recently returned from a trip to Germany was in midst Wednesday.

Mr. Gus Timmerberg returned after a several days visit with friends and relatives in Warren county.

Howard Dickey and John Zweifel boarded the train for St. Louis Friday morning, from where they will make a trip to Oklahoma.

Mr. Chas. Koch was here Friday to meet his mother who resides at Holstein. He reports his son as nearly recovered of his recent accident.

Our farmers are jubilant over the recent rain, and well they might, for this is the first rain of any consequence since the 17th of last April.

The youngest child of Andy Quick which was sick with pneumonia has about recovered.

Miss Fronie Kimmich returned to her home in Warren county Saturday.

We are reliably informed of the engagement of Mr. Albert Riley and Miss Annie Anderson; both of near here. The wedding is set for Friday 18 inst.

Old man Bart Fehlings whose wife died a short time ago if reported quite low at this writing, general debility and grief are said to be the cause.

Arch-bishop Kain of St. Louis, will be at St. Martins church at Starkenburg in a few weeks.

Fred Hoerth left for St. Louis Monday where he goes to secure employment.

R. E. SCHUB.

Jonesburg

H. C. Begeman and A. H. Drunert were in St. Louis last Thursday on business.

Sheriff Wilson of Montgomery was here last Thursday attending to business.

Wm. Smith of Wellsville was down last week visiting his brother Frank.

Miss Ella Corvey of New Florence is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Fred Schneider at this place.

W. L. Smith was in St. Charles last week visiting friends.

Jacob Fishbacker was in St. Louis last week visiting relatives.

H. W. Johnston returned from Jefferson City where he attended Supreme Court.

Miss Inez Purl was in Warrenton last Friday taking music lessons.

Fred Kolling came up from St. Louis Friday morning to visit relatives.

H. C. Nieuhues of Truxton came over Friday and went to St. Louis to visit his son Charles, who is with Big 4 Lumber Co.

W. C. Clemerson of Warrenton was here Monday shaking hands with old friends.

Mrs. Clee Stephens who has been in Oregon and Colorado for the past two months returned home Saturday.

W. A. Warner and Miss Corday Chandler spent Sunday at Big Spring with Miss Chandler's sister Beatrice, who is teaching school at that place.

Col. G. W. Borden was in High Hill Monday on business.

John Miller came up from St. Louis Monday to visit relatives and friends.

Mike Reisch returned from St. Louis Monday night where he visited relatives for the past ten days.

H. M. Lee Godfrey went to St. Louis Tuesday morning to purchase new goods for Foreman & Dyer Drug Co.

Joe Hempstead of Fairview was here Tuesday on business and says he is going west in the spring to seek his fortune. MASCOT.

Big Spring

Sol. Carroll returned home from St. Louis last Thursday.

Dr. Coats of "Florence" was here Friday and Saturday, doing dental work.

Rev. Rob't. Duncan preached at Liberty last Sunday and has been called to fill that pulpit the ensuing year.

Rev. Fielder of St. Louis accompanied Rev. Keller on his appointment at this place and preached at the M. E. Church South last Sunday.

Dr. Owings of Montgomery City spent Sunday with friends here.

Wm. Niedergerke purchased Eli Sanders' farm one day last week and the latter moved to Americus last Monday where he will make his future home.

Dr. W. W. Daniels delivered a bunch of hogs to Mr. Thos. McClure at "Florence" last Tuesday. BONJOUR.

Bellflower

Miss Carrie Schowengerdt is on the sick list.

Henry Kamp's youngest child is also on the sick list.

Protracted meeting has been postponed at this place on account of meeting at Two-Mile Branch and Union Chapel.

Fred Hupe returned home last Friday from Kansas where he has been visiting.

Jesse Boon who has been up in Calaway county returned home last Tuesday.

Harry Bally of Montgomery City was visiting in this neighborhood last Sunday.

Mrs. Bonnell and daughters were in Truxton scopping last Monday. WHIFFORWILL.

Thomas District

A fine shower of rain fell in this vicinity last Friday and it has relieved the people greatly of hauling water.

Henry May and wife were visiting H. A. Davison's Sunday.

Quite a number from this vicinity attended the party at Frank Davison's last Friday night all reported a nice time.

Little Dewey Stansberry is very sick at this writing, we hope soon to note his recovery.

Jas. West and wife were visiting at Mrs. M. Y. Kirks Monday.

H. A. Davison and George Updegrave were up from St. Charles Sunday on a vacation.

Several from this vicinity attended the sale at R. H. Stansberry's Saturday.

Mrs. Dave May was visiting Mrs. H. A. Davison Monday.

Dave May and wife were in Wellsville trading Tuesday.

Henry May was in Montgomery Tuesday with hogs. O. U. KNOW.

New Florence

Dr. Holcomb and wife spent last week in St. Louis where they enjoyed the autumn festivities with relatives and friends.

Miss Ida Kallmeyer went to Rhineland last week to remain several days visiting relatives.

Despite the inclement weather quite a number of the young people spent a very delightful evening with Miss Kate Blades last Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Windsor, near town.

The new minister, Rev. Maggart was tendered a surprise party at his home last Saturday by the members of the M. E. Church, every one went fully supplied with provision, cooked victuals and various other useful articles, all took dinner at the parsonage, shook hands with the preacher, his wife and daughter, wished them a prosperous and happy year in our midst and returned to their homes pronouncing it a very social and profitable day for the church people.

Reverend Cravens and wife, formerly Miss Myrtle See, have been here the past week with their many relatives, Rev. Cravens preached two very excellent sermons at the C. P. Church last Sunday, which closed the series of meetings which have been held there for some time past.

Miss Emma Stewart of Louisiana returned to her home Sunday after a weeks visit with her friends and relatives at this place.

T. J. Powell Jr. is in St. Louis this week.

Hughes Maupin and wife were visiting over at Auxvasse Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. C. E. Stewart went over to Louisiana Sunday to spend a few days with her mother, Mrs. A. C. Stewart before they leave for California where they expect to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Kelkar of Colorado are visiting at the home of their uncle Mr. J. F. Webb.

Miss Lydia Willis is entertaining friends from Troy this week.

Our school is growing in interest and the scholars are doing some excellent work. PUELLA.

Wellsville

Mrs. Annie Spires, who has been visiting her sister Mrs. Mildred Stommons for several weeks returned to her home in Mexico last Thursday.

Mrs. James Keller and daughter Miss Sulah of near Montgomery were shopping here Saturday.

Mrs. George Wise of Bowling Green was the guest of relatives in this city the first of the week.

W. B. Finley of New Florence spent Saturday and Sunday with homefolks.

Miss Rhoda Parker is visiting friends in St. Louis.

Misses Mamie O'Donnell and Amelia Meyers attended the Fair at St. Louis last week.

Miss Doshia Cartharie of near Montgomery visited friends in this city Sunday.

Miss Pearl Baker returned last week from a visit to Laddonia friends.

Wm. Blain of Vesalia, Cal., is visiting Dr. J. C. Blaine and family.

One of the most enjoyable events of the season was a surprise party on last Saturday night at the home of Miss Kathryn Widaman, it being her fifteenth birthday. Although being completely surprised Miss Kathryn rose to the occasion and proved herself a charming hostess. One of the most pleasant features of the evening was the instrumental music by Miss Widaman and the vocal music by Miss Adeline Reighley. Refreshments were served at 11 p. m. The guests were, Misses Edie Hazel Phillips, Lelia G. Walker, Violet Leola McQuile, Martha Dale Paden, Adeline Gertrude Seighly; Messrs. Dolph Jordan, E. L. Black, Chas. Schulz, Gilbert Rees, George Lehnen, H. E. Lehnen.

John Stuart of Chicago is the guest of his mother, Mrs. M. A. Stuart in this city.

Master Harry Burwell of Martinsburg was visiting relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Copeland of Montgomery were the guests of relatives here Tuesday.

Miss Ellen McGowan of Cuiver was here shopping Tuesday.

Miss Josie Battner and niece Miss Etta spent Saturday with friends at Jonesburg.

L. A. Bird, editor of Martinsburg Enterprise was here Tuesday.

Died at her home in this city, Oct. 15, 1904, Miss Jessie L. Creech, aged 19 years 3 months and 10 days. The funeral was preached at C. P. Church at 3 o'clock Wednesday Oct. 16, by Rev. J. B. White. Full particulars next week.

Will Jordan, who has been in Chicago for several weeks returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. Addie Baskett is visiting friends at Quiver.

Herbert Paris and Tom Robnett of Mexico were the guests of friends here Sunday.

Lon Hughlett and family, who have been living in Vandalla the past summer have returned to this city to spend the winter.

Mrs. Garber and sister spent last week with friends and relatives in Lincoln Co.

John Robinson was here from Middletown last Wednesday.

H. Habenicht attended the Fair in St. Louis last week. ST. ELMO.

Cross Roads

F. E. Kraft has returned home from St. Charles.

Misses Emma and Lizzie Faulhaber visited Misses Emma and Gertrude Kraft Sunday.

Ben Wood and wife of Galleton Mo. visited Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Wood last week.

Preaching at Cross Roads last Sunday by Rev. Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. W. E. Holt has returned from her visit to Gasconade.

W. E. Holt's father of Gasconade is visiting in this neighborhood.

H. A. Kraft went to Montgomery Monday.

H. A. Davidson and G. I. Uptegrove came home from St. Charles Saturday night and returned Sunday night.

Preaching at Hopewell next Sunday at 3 p. m.

C. F. Kraft, Whit and Milton and Clarence White went to St. Louis Tuesday.

Several from this vicinity attended the party at Frank Davidson's Friday night and reported a good time.

Whit May is working roads in this vicinity this week.

J. A. C. Kraft visited Gus Ittner and family Sunday. PET.

Mincola

Sam Hinder has brought an interest in Ped Russell's store the firm bought the Black Flag store at Montgomery and are moving the stock of goods to this place.

Herbert Whiteside, Will Dixon and Web Baker spent Saturday with Hught Baker, hunting was the order of the day, they killed 4 squirrels, 7 quails and a bird they could not name.

W. A. Graham started 200 head of hogs to Montgomery Tuesday morning and 80 head of cattle Wednesday morning.

Charlie Roberson of Metredie was the guest of Miss Scandland last week.

B. L. Blades and W. C. Crane returned from St. Louis Saturday.

Miss Nellie Baker visited relatives in Montgomery from Friday until Sunday.

Tucker McClure spent from Friday until Sunday in St. Louis.

John Graham's family spent Sunday with Frank Baker's family.

Miss Kate Baker accompanied by Miss Grace Scandland spent Sunday with Miss Kate's home folks.

Mrs. Rachel Gregory fell from a horse last Tuesday night and broke her left arm between the elbow and shoulder. Dr. Mans was called to set the broken bones and she is getting along as well as could be expected.

New Hope

A good rain fell here last Friday night the most we have had for about 8 months.

Wheat sowing is about all done and some is up and looking fine since the recent rains.

Grandma Johnson is on the sick list for the last few days.

D. W. Graves wife and daughters Misses Julia and Nellie of Montgomery City spent last Sunday with E. M. Oliver and family.

Richard M. Johnson who has been in North Dakota the past few months is expected home in a few days.

John M. Cox and J. E. Dickey visited at Elmer Osborne's near Hope Well last Monday.

E. S. Eames lost a valuable horse last week supposed from feeding corn fodder.

There will be preaching at New Hope church next Sunday at 11 o'clock by Rev. R. S. Duncan. Sunday School at 10 o'clock, also preaching at night at 7:30 by Rev. Jerry Griffin of Mexico, Mo.

William Appling has his new house ready for plastering but owing to the lateness of the season has about concluded to wait until spring to plaster it.

Gipson Dickey was on the sick list last week.

Mrs. Melle Johnson and Miss Lottie McCord attended preaching at Mt. Carmel last Sunday evening.

John Cox is beautifying his plantation by putting a new roof on his house and preparing to build a new barn.

Road working has commenced again since the rain has laid the dust and made the ground in order. O. U. GUESS.

West Prairie

We had a nice rain Friday night which will be of much benefit to the grass and wheat but did not make much stock water.

Rev. Condiff and Rev. Lovelace exchanged pulpits Saturday evening. The former presides at Horeb and the latter at Middletown.

Miss Cynthia Hellyer died at the home of her sister at Fayette Mo. and was brought back to this county and buried at the Macedonia cemetery Sunday.

John Ellis lost a fine mare last week by what is called the corn stalk disease.

There is more wheat being sown than ever before in this neighborhood. Much of it is being sown for pasture.

Quite a number of farmers are prospecting for water.

Mrs. Ellen Srote of Silex, who recently moved from this neighborhood is reported as being very sick with no prospects of her recovery.

Austa and Creston Parsons bought the blacksmith shop of I. Bonnel of Marling and will take possession next week. REX.

Gamma

C. J. Pratt purchased a horse of J. M. Davidson for $115.

Mrs. Bertha Hinton was in Montgomery City Friday shopping.

Mrs. Sam Lotton and Miss Effie Moorhead of Belleflower spent Friday with Mrs. Bertha Lotton.

There was a heavy rain fell Friday night that has stoped the water hauling for a few days at least.

One of Hardin Spires' horses had its foot cut very bad on barb wire one day last week.

Miss Mollie Logar of Olney is visiting her cousin Miss Mittie Logan.

Maggie Baxter of Montgomery City visiting relatives in this neighborhood last week.

John Vernatti was in Wellsville on business Thursday.

Mrs. Margret Spears of Montgomery City visited relatives in this vicinity last week.

Mrs. Eveline Merrihugh and two children left last week for St. Louis where Pearl has secured work.

Mrs. Bettie Logan spent last week with relatives in Olney.

Mrs. Francis Sails and family moved to the place recently vacated by George Earnest and family.

Jack Davis is going to St. Louis Wednesday to have his eyes treated. He will be accompanied by Dr. Elkins.

C. C. Moorhead and family visited Mrs. Bud Lotton Tuesday.

Neil Ankrom, wife and daughter, Miss Leola of West Prairie spent Sunday with Mrs. L. C. Pittenger.

Miss Seynthia Helyer was buried at the Macedonia cemetery Sunday.

Ora Stipp delivered a load of goods from Montgomery for Jess Davidson.

There is to be a gospel temperance meeting at Union Chapel Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Hazel Dell

Very cool weather at present.

Miss Mollie Logan of Olney is visiting her aunt Betty Logan of this vicinity.

The protracted meeting conducted by Giddens and Miller at Union Chapel is progressing nicely. Rev. Miller is an excellent preacher.

Fred Kraft who has been working at St. Charles returned home last Monday night sick. The symptoms were of heart trouble and he came to consult the doctor. (P) He went back last Sunday night.

John Logan of Troy is visiting his sister-in-law, Aunt Betty Logan of this vicinity. GIPSY.

Truxton

Rolly Ingram spent Saturday and Sunday with Clyde Joiner.

Dr. Mortinie and Blaer, Druggist at this place have quit business.

Arthur Pennington and sister of Herman, Mo., are the guests of relatives and friends at this writing.

A glorious rain Friday night.

J. H. Ingram and daughter, Luke Parish and wife were among the sight seers at the St. Louis fair last week.

P. A. Davis is in St. Louis this week buying fall and winter goods. Quarterly meeting at Pin Oak last Sunday.

Ed Thell shipped a car load of walnut lumber to St. Louis last week.

Bill Allen, of Troy, was visiting relatives here last week.

A Debating Society will begin here Friday night. Come and be benefited.

J. C. Brown was in Troy Thursday.

J. O. Wilson of Prices Branch was calling on our fair sex here Sunday.

Listen to the wedding bells ring in the Pin Oak neighborhood soon.

Protracted meeting began last Sunday at the German church. TRUX.

Peytonia

A good rain fell here on the 11th which was beneficial to the wheat. May be good prospects for a good wheat crop next year.

Mrs. Isaac T. Keele went to St. Louis recently to join her husband who went some time ago and to visit relatives. Mrs. Wm. Page, a sister to Mrs. Keele, is taking care of her household while she is away.

Robert Bently sold his part of the corn that he raised this year to Joseph Goodman for $95.00.

The October peaches are nearly all gone.

Homer and Earnest Keele were out hunting on the 12th.

Robert Bently, who lives on John B. Conley's farm in Callaway county has sowed 20 acres of wheat.

John W. Goodman had a well dug about 15 feet deep on his farm in Callaway and a good vein of water is running in it.

Samuel T. Weeks of Callaway county called here last Sunday.

They laid the corner stone of the New Providence Primitive Baptist church on the 8th, near the cemetery on Loure, west of Montgomery and north of Loure Baptist church.

Rev. Rufus Hunly is teaching school in the vicinity of Americus now. J. A. D.

Mock Trial

The colored boys of the town held a mock trial at the colored Methodist church Tuesday night as a result of a difference of opinion between Roy Woods and Hugh English as to whether Mr. McGowan should pay Mr. Algermisen for damage done his wagon in the run-away last week. Nat Harper suggested the trial to settle the dispute, which was then arranged. Woods represented Mr. McGowan and English represented Mr. Algermisen. Squire W. E. Anderson acted as Judge, Nat Harper and John Stewart attorneys for plaintiff, and Lon Elmor and Geo. Hawakins for defendant. Prof. W. O. Shelton acted as Circuit Clerk and Abe Bundy as Sheriff. A jury of 12 men was selected and the suit was tried with much earnestness which resulted in a hung jury. The case was continued to next term of court.

Whats Your Face Worth?

Sometimes a fortune, but never if you have a shallow complexion, a jaundiced look, moth patches and blotches on the skin, all signs of Liver Trouble. But Dr. King's New Life Pills give Clear Skin, Rosy Cheeks, Rich Complexion. Only 25 cents at Cason's Pharmacy.